HAPAI-KO DANCE IS SUCCESS OF SEASON

(Special to the Garden Island)
MAKAWELI, Oct. 3.—By far the most successful Hapaiko dance ever held here, was that which took place here last Saturday night, when fully two hundred people gathered to join the Makaweli people in the celebration of the harvesting of one of the largest crops in the history of the plantation.

Decorations were elaborate, consisting of ferns and mountain foliage, flooded with a profusion of various sized electric light globes. The music was delightful and was furnished by the Waipa Glee Club. The refreshments were most appetizing and Mr. Gregg of the refreshment committee received much praise on the successful administration of this part of the program. Floor Manager Eddie Deverill kept things humming and distinguished himself in many ways, as the right man for the place.

At the upper end of the hall, a glass case into which the recently won Silver Cups, possessed by Makaweli's star ball tossers, artistically reposed, inviting and receiving the admiration of the guests. Electric light bulbs had been placed directly above them, the rays from which portrayed their beauty in all its splendor.

A noticeable feature of the evening was the presence of so many pretty school maams, there being no less than thirty.

THE ISENBERG-COOKE-RICE MEMORIAL

MRS. C. M. COOKE

NOT with the purpose of vain-glories shows,
But to express the rooted faith that grows
Like that small mustard seed. Beauty and Art,
Like two twin souls nor ever far apart,
Here meet in chaste embrace, in sweet combine
Their tender tendrils clasp and strong entwine
The wisdom of Ages long to teach,
The all-revealing truth, the one great speech—
To lift our eyes, our hearts, our minds above,
To learn, to feel to know that—'GOD IS LOVE.'

PENNSYLVANIA TOWN IS WIPED OFF MAP

(Special to the Garden Island)
AUSTIN PENN., Oct. 2.—The Collapsing of a dam here yesterday turned loose a body of water which in a twinkling of an eye, swept the town of Austin of the map, killing and wounding eleven hundred of its inhabitants. Four hundred bodies have been recovered, and the improvised morgues running over. Heart rending scenes prevail.

Many lives were saved by the prompt action of a telephone girl in notifying many of the residents of the ill-fated town of the impending danger. The town will probably not be rebuilt.

STEFAN Sinding, the celebrated sculptor of this beautiful monument, is Norwegian by birth, one of three brothers, each having attained a name for himself, one an artist and another a musical composer. Sinding married an actress of high repute, a favorite at the Court of Copenhagen, who, during the early years of their married life, followed her profession in order to assist her husband until his name was made, he, as is the case with so many of real genius, having to work strenuously to acquire that perfection in art which placed him to-day at the top of his profession. BENTON-RICE WEDDING, SOCIETY AFFAIR

The following bit of interesting news concerning the Benton-Rice nuptials is taken from a San Diego exchange:

At high noon yesterday an impressive and beautiful wedding ceremony, possible only in the semi-tropics, was solemnized under the fringed palms in the court of Hotel del Coronado, uniting in marriage two well known young society people of San Diego and Hawaii.

The bride, Miss Flora Benton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison Benton of San Diego county, and is popular in local social circles. Philip La Vergne Rice the bridegroom, is a member of a prominent Hawaiian family, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyde Rice of Lihue, Kauai territory of Hawaii. The four Rice sons are famous as the Rice polo team in the Hawaiian islands.

The setting chosen for the ceremony seemed most fitting for the culmination of a pretty romance that had its beginning a little more than two summers ago when the bride was a house guest at the home of Mr. Rice's sister at Kauai. The bride was unattended and wore a gown of white satin with an overdress of marquisette trimmed in pearls and rare lace. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and wore a filmy veil which enhanced her loveliness. Only the immediate relatives were present to witness the ceremony. The lapping of the waves on the sea shore and the soft breezes seemed to whisper an "Aloha" from far away Hawaii. During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Charles Barnes of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Coronado orchestra played the Lohengrin wedding march in low tones. After the benediction had been pronounced and congratulations received and while the party was moving across the lawn under the palms the soft strains of "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" was played.

A wedding breakfast was served in the green banquet room, after which the young couple departed amid a shower of rose leaves. After a wedding trip of about a month through the state, visiting relatives of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Rice will sail for their home in Hawaii.

Through the last week relatives and friends have been arriving at the hotel to attend the ceremony, among them being Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Benton, parents of the bride; Ralph Benton, her brother; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rice, parents of the groom, and Miss Sexton, also of Kauai, Hawaii, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Rice.

Those present to witness the ceremony and seated afterward at the wedding breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Salisbury, Miss Effie Sexton, Rev. Charles L. Barnes, Miss Lucile Henking, Roy F. Benton, Mrs. R. H. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Benton.

School Supervisor H. H. Brodie, passed through the County Seat yesterday en route to schools on the east and northern sides of the island.

Work on a three-roomed teachers' cottage for the Lihue School will begin at once.

Mrs. Hudson and two children of Honolulu are guests of Mrs. C. B. Makee, Hanalei.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox moved over to Hanalei last Thursday, returning Friday.
